

SBU SHOWCASE SINGERS PRESENT "DON'T TOUCH THAT RADIO DIAL!!" ON APRIL 28

BOLIVAR, Mo. – The Showcase Singers of Southwest Baptist University will present an online-only performance of “Don’t Touch That Radio Dial!!” – a look back at the golden age of radio entertainment – at 9 p.m. on Wednesday, April 28.

“The Showcase Singers will present a fast-paced wealth of great swing music as well as the comedy and commercials that make the 1930s and 40s so nostalgic,” said Dr. Jim Tarrant, director of the ensemble and professor of music and choral studies at SBU.

“Pandemic concerns for social distancing have, for once, been a bonus. Folks will be able to stay in and enjoy the show in the comfort and safety of their own homes, much like our grandparents did.”

The link to the performance will be posted on the SBU Music Area’s Facebook page at www.facebook.com/SBUniv.music.
