

SBU JAZZ ENSEMBLE TO PRESENT SPRING CONCERT APRIL 20

BOLIVAR, Mo. – The Southwest Baptist University Jazz Ensemble will be featured in its spring concert at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 20, in Pike Auditorium on the Bolivar campus.

Under the direction of Dr. Jeffery Waters, head of the Division of Arts and Humanities, the 17-piece Jazz Ensemble is the premiere ensemble on campus dedicated to the exclusive study of jazz music, and will feature SBU student performers in a program that includes a variety of styles associated with the big-band jazz ensemble.

The program is free and open to the public, with masks and social distancing required, and is part of the regular-season of concerts and recitals presented by the SBU Division of Arts and Humanities.

For more information, contact Waters at (417) 328-1644 or jwaters@SBUuniv.edu.
