

SBU HOMECOMING LITTLE BROTHERS, LITTLE SISTERS SELECTED

BOLIVAR, Mo. — Southwest Baptist University has selected the “little brothers” and “little sisters” for Homecoming 2021. Each child will escort a king and queen or prince and princess candidate during the Homecoming parade at 10 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 2. The “little brothers” and “little sisters” are children or grandchildren of SBU employees.

she wants to be an animal doctor.

Grace Kelly is the daughter of Keith and Charity Kelly, and the granddaughter of Bill and Darla Walkup. Grace is in first grade and when she grows up she wants to be an ice cream maker.

Jill and Ellen Murphy are the daughters of John and Katie Murphy. Jill is in first grade and when she grows up she wants to be an artist. Ellen is in kindergarten and wants to be a doctor when she grows up.

Reese Brown-Peterson is the daughter of Angie and Rashaad Brown-Peterson. Reese wants to “teach big kids at SBU like Mommy” when she grows up.

Sarah Varner is the daughter of Robert and Amy Varner, and the granddaughter of Mark and Beth Grabowski. Sarah is in first grade and when she grows up she wants to be a pediatric urologist.

For more information about SBU Homecoming, please contact the Office of Alumni Engagement at (417) 328-1806.

PHOTO – 2021 Little Brothers and Little Sisters (Left to right): Grace Kelly, Riker Fox, Sarah Varner, Luella Fox, Jill Murphy, Ellen Murphy, Reese Brown-Peterson and Jude Wright.

*Published: 9-23-2021

Little brothers

Riker Fox is the son of Levi Fox. Riker is in preschool and when he grows up he wants to be a bird feather finder.

Jude Wright is the son of Nate and Amanda Wright. Jude is in first grade and when he grows up he wants to be a baseball player.

Little sisters

Luella Fox is the daughter of Levi Fox. Luella is in first grade and when she grows up