

SBU-MOUNTAIN VIEW, SBU-SALEM SEND OUT FUTURE TEACHERS

BOLIVAR, Mo. – Teacher candidates from the Southwest Baptist University campuses at Mountain View and Salem recently began their student teaching this semester in area elementary, middle school and high school classrooms.

Student-teachers from SBU-Mountain View include: Jillian

Ash, Jessie Henry, Ashley Hollis, Brandon Hunt and Kelsey Karr. SBU-Salem student-teachers are: Lisa Baker, Charlene Bever, Stephanie Buie, Alivia Elliot, Samantha Fry, Trista Hance, Destiny Hill, Gabrielle Lopez, Amanda Oppelt, Katie Sapp, Linda Shelby, Breanna Taylor, Timothy Todd and Carly Wilber.

SBU's Mountain View and Salem campuses provide quality higher education close to home for residents of Howell and Dent counties and the surrounding areas. Classes are taught in the afternoon and evening, making a degree at SBU-Mountain View or SBU-Salem attainable for people who are in the workforce but pursuing higher education to open new employment opportunities.

For more information about the SBU-Mountain View campus, contact Shae Miller at (417) 934-2999 or shaemiller@sbuniv.edu. For more information about the SBU-Salem campus, contact Chris Welch at (573) 729-7071 or salem@SBUiv.edu.

*Published: 3-9-2020