

SBU CHORALE TO PRESENT FALL CONCERT NOV. 4

BOLIVAR, Mo. – The Chorale of Southwest Baptist University will present its Fall concert at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 4, in Pike Auditorium on the Bolivar campus.

The performance is free and open to the public.

Under the direction of Dr. James R. Tarrant, director of choral studies and professor of music, the Chorale will present a varied program of a cappella choral music spanning three centuries. The Chorale recently completed its fall tour of area high schools as well as churches in Springfield and Camdenton, Mo.

The Chorale is a selectively auditioned ensemble that has performed for major music education and denominational conventions. Over the past decade, the Chorale has performed at the Missouri Music Educators Association state convention, the Missouri Baptist Convention and numerous churches and high schools across the state. Since 2005, the Chorale also has performed in cathedrals and other historic venues in Austria, the Czech Republic and Germany, including a rare performance in the Singers Room in the Neuschwanstein Castle in Bavaria.

For more information about the Chorale and SBU's music department, call (417) 328-1644.
